IN THE CLAIMS

Listing of Claims:

1. (Currently Amended) Method for driving an optical disk drive in a power save mode having the steps of:
  - receiving an indication to start power save mode;
  - turning off a servo driver of the optical disk drive by disabling the driving signals from the servo driver by disabling a supply of power to the servo driver with a controller included in the servo driver
  - after that, turning off a photodetector of the optical disk drive;
  - awaiting an indication to stop power save mode;
  - turning on said photodetector; and
  - after that, turning on said servo driver.

5. (Currently Amended) Optical disk drive with a pickup and a servo controller, wherein the pickup is equipped with a photodetector and a servo actuator and wherein the servo controller generates a control signal in response to photodetector signals, said control signal being submitted to the servo actuator via a servo driver, the optical disk drive comprising:

a power save controller for sequentially turning off the servo driver by disabling the driving signals from the servo driver by disabling a supply of power to the servo driver with a controller included in the servo driver followed by turning off the photodetector, and for turning on the photodetector and the servo driver in the reverse order.
